

Summer Edition December 21st 2004 – January 11th 2005
Wines of the Future – Peter Forrestal and Sophie Otton –
Profile 30 wines to watch out for.

2001 Paulett's Andreas Shiraz

The Paulett's property in the Polish Hill River area was purchased by Andreas Wieman in 1867 and remained with the family for more than a century. The "Andreas" Shiraz is sourced from 70 year old vines and it shows: deep, brooding and lusciously flavoured with bright, brambly flavours, velvety texture and ripe tannins. PF